Christmas Program

Our Christmas program is December 18th at 6:30pm. Note: There is mass at 5:30 which should end at 6:00 or shortly after. You are welcome to attend mass. Students with a costume in the program (Mary, sheep, etc.) will need to come to the gym doors at 6:00 and go to the stage to put on their costume. Only that student will be allowed in. All other students (including narrators and scripture readers who will go to Mrs. Haden’s room) will be allowed to go to their classrooms at 6:15. Please keep them in the pew with you until Mrs. Soukup announces that they can go to their classrooms. Please respect our sacred space and do not let them run around in church.

Dress code for the Christmas program: Boys can wear dress slacks (no jeans or shorts) or uniform pants and shirts with a collar. Sweaters without a shirt will be allowed. No wording on shirts and no jeans or shorts. Girls can wear dress slacks (no jeans or shorts), capris, dresses, or skirts. No wording on shirts, no mini-skirts and the entire shoulder (from the neck to the sleeve line) must be covered. Sleeveless is ok, but no spaghetti straps or tank tops.

Candle Fundraiser – Home & School Association

Candle Fundraiser

This is the last week to get your orders in for the candle fundraiser. Please have your orders turned in by Friday the 12th. Again, this is the last year to get these so order your favorites! Your help in supporting the school is greatly appreciated!!

Junior High Spring Musical

This year’s musical is “Singing in the Rain Jr.” Audition packets will be sent home when Mrs. Soukup or Miss Soukup receives the “Check List for Parents” sheet that went home with the students November 25th. On December 3rd and 4th from 3:30-4:40, we will have time for the kids to learn the music and choreography that will be used during the auditions. (We ask that they attend one session) Auditions for the production will be December 10th and 11th. Click here to sign up for your child’s audition: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/5080B45A4A623ABF94-60765523-musical>
